

Curing Compound

Concrete curing agent.

Synthetic resin-based milky liquid. Forms a transparent film and thus protects the freshly stripped concrete from drying out prematurely. Loose cement particles are bound. Allows the subsequent application of colors and coatings.

Consumption

Approx. 150 - 300 ml per m² depending on the underground structure